

Working From Home (WFH) Effectiveness Online & Onscreen

OBJECTIVE

In these uncertain times when we are being urged to stay at home, protect the NHS and save lives, it seems imperative that we explore how to improve our own effectiveness in our new workplace i.e. our home. This course is designed to ensure that delegates increase their self-awareness and confidence by gaining skills to change and adapt their behaviours to achieve greater effectiveness and therefore success.

“Unlock your potential for success and happiness.”
Richard Denny

THIS 90 MINUTE MODULE INCLUDES:

- Understanding the barriers to effectiveness and time ‘bandits’
- Self-assessment of the key ‘WFH Effectiveness’ skills
- The importance of structure, routine and attitude
- Goal setting and planning
- The time management matrix
- Taking control and adopting good habits, techniques and tips

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This course is suitable for all.

THE RESULTS?

For the delegate:

- Improved self-awareness, confidence and effectiveness, especially around planning and prioritising tasks
- Increased knowledge of assertive behaviour and its benefits with clients and colleagues
- Increased understanding of handling difficult situations and coping strategies

For the company:

- Increased business effectiveness and profitability
- Better attitude and positivity from its employees.
